CANYON COUNTY CLERK
D. BUTLER, DEPUTY

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2009-12:

Administrative Order Rescinding Prior Administrative Orders Relating to the Establishment and Operation of Pre-Trial Release as a Division of the District Court

Whereas, in November 1989 a Canyon County Pre-Trial Release Division was established and operated as a Division of the District Court under the general supervision of the Administrative Judge, pursuant to Administrative Order 89-2 [and as later modified and expanded by additional administrative orders subsequently identified herein];

Whereas, it appearing to the Court that the Canyon County Sheriff is desirous of providing Pre-trial Release services to the Court, and believes that the Canyon County Sheriff's Office is better able to administer a county Pre-Trial Services program;

Whereas, it appearing to the Court that a Pre-Trial Services program administered by the Canyon County Sheriff will include the collection and presentation of information to the Court for use in making pre-trial release decisions; will include the monitoring of compliance with conditions of release imposed by the Court upon persons pending adjudication; and will promptly inform the Court of apparent violations of pre-trial release conditions or arrests of persons released pending trial;

Whereas, it appearing that any Pre-Trial Services program administered by the Canyon County Sheriff will not include and cannot include a delegation of the Court's authority to determine bail for a person accused of a crime, to order the release of such person on his or her recognizance, or to impose reasonable terms, conditions, and prohibitions on any such release;

Therefore, all provisions set forth in the following Administrative Orders relating to the establishment, operation, and administration of the Canyon County Pre-Trial Release program, as a division of the District Court, are hereby now RESCINDED, effective this date:

Administrative Order 89-2, entered November 13, 1989;

Administrative Order 90-1, entered January 5, 1990;

Administrative Order 90-5, entered August 16, 1990;
