

- c. Motions filed after the case has been resolved by judgment or dismissal.
2. The deputy court clerk shall notify the defendant by use of a printed form that the proffered motion/pleading has not been filed and that the matter can only be addressed through the defendant's attorney of record.
 3. The Canyon County Court Clerks will be provided with the appropriate form for such notice.
 4. A copy of this order shall be posted in the Canyon County Jail adjacent to any location which preprinted legal forms have been made available to inmates.

Be it so ordered, this 25 day of April, 2006.
